Life-Drawing Model Information Sheet

Department of Art and Art History

University of Saskatchewan

Life-drawing models in the Department of Art and Art History are paid for three hours of work at the rate of $15/hour. First-time models will need to fill out paperwork for payroll. Time sheets are available from the Office Coordinator for Art and Art History, or on the Art and Art History website.

We are looking for reliable people to be part of our roster of models. If you have been scheduled and can no longer attend, it is important that we have as much notice as possible to allow us to make alternate arrangements for the class.

All classes are held on weekdays.
