MASTER'S AND PH.D. PROGRAMS IN FRENCH

The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultural Studies offers a Master's degree in French. Areas of strength include theory and criticism, French (seventeenth to twentieth centuries), Québécois and Francophone literatures, women's writing and gender studies, French and Francophone cinema studies, as well as translation and language studies. Our courses cover a variety of topics of interest to Canadian, US and international students and focus on research areas that French professors at the University of Saskatchewan are pursuing.

Admission requirements

For admission into the M.A. program, applicants must have:

- A 4-year Degree (Major in French) or a 4-year Honours Degree (Major in French);
- A cumulative average of at least 70% in the last 2 years of study (60 cu);
- Have taken a minimum of 30 cu of 3rd and 4th-year French courses;
- Submit a term or research paper and a statement of research interest.

Funding and Scholarships

All new M.A. students are automatically considered for financial aid in the form of fellowships or teaching assistantships awarded by the Department or by the College of Graduate Studies and Research. No separate application is necessary. University Graduate Scholarships and Graduate Teaching Fellowships are available for a maximum of 24 months of total support for each M.A. student.

Scholarships are also available for graduate students. We encourage you to visit our website to find all the necessary information.

Deadlines

To be considered for graduate funding, applications should be received before March 15th for September registration.

CO-TUTELLE

Students who enroll in a Ph. D. program will have the opportunity to do a co-tutelle (joint Doctorate) with a university in France or Quebec. For more information, please contact the French Graduate Chair, Dr Stella Spriet (stella.spriet@usask.ca).

FUNDING AND SCHOLARSHIPS

To be considered for graduate funding, applications should be received before March 15th for September registration.
