

ANOTHER INSPIRING LECTURE AFTER JAN GEHL

GIL PENALOSA

Internationally renowned liveable city advisor

Transport Canada | Transports Canada

Meewasin

aodbt
architecture + interior design

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of Arts and Science | Regional and Urban Planning

roadmap
SASKATOON community environment economy

SASKATOON CYCLES

“Safe walking and cycling infrastructure and vibrant public places are key symptoms of a more people-oriented and socially equitable city.”

Thursday, Sept 30th - 7:00PM

ROXY THEATRE

320 20th STREET SASKATOON

TICKETS ON SALE AT WWW.PICATIC.COM

IF YOU MISSED GEHL DON'T MISS GIL

soon!

RUP Program Co-Sponsoring Gil Penalosa Liveable Cities Lecture

The Regional and Urban Planning (RUP) Program in the College of Arts&Science at the University of Saskatchewan is proud to be co-sponsoring the upcoming Liveable Cities Lecture, featuring Gil Penalosa, internationally renowned liveable cities advisor. The event takes place at 7pm on September 30th at the Roxy Theatre in Saskatoon.

Gil Penalosa is the Executive Director of Canadian non-profit organization 8-80 Cities and former Commissioner of Parks, Sports and Recreation in Bogota, Colombia. The presentation, brought to you by Road Map Saskatoon and Saskatoon Cycles, is a continuation of a green lecture series begun with last year's presentation by Jan Gehl, internationally-renowned leader in urban design.

Mr. Penalosa will discuss building stronger communities, economies, and citizens through urban planning that is intuitive and human-friendly. For more on Gil Penalosa, please visit the following sites: <http://www.8-80cities.org/>, <http://www.roadmap2020.ca/events/gpenalosalecture/>, or <http://www.saskatooncycles.org/>.

Tickets are $15 and can be purchased at www.picatic.com/ticket/event4761002. Don't miss this great event!

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

College of
Arts and Science | Regional and Urban Planning